Make your impact!

Upcoming Information Session

Thursday, October 20, 10:00 a.m.
Hutchinson and Willmar campuses

Learn how Ridgewater College can get you on the path to your four-year degree in virtually any major! A liberal arts degree simply means general education — it doesn’t matter whether you plan to pursue an artistic degree or one that focuses on science, technology or human services. A liberal arts degree is the first two years of a four-year degree — it’s the broad education that helps make you a well-rounded person.

During the session you will:
- Explore your options based on your personal situation
- Learn how the transfer process works
- Experience the college atmosphere and personal attention that help students succeed at Ridgewater
- Explore online course options

Discover why Ridgewater College is a great first step!
